

When customers deliver their products and services on a worldwide basis, Travelers is there to meet their insurance needs.

With Canada as the first International operation formed in 1866 followed closely by the London market in the early 1900's, Travelers continues to build on more than a century of International experience.

Today as a member of the International Network of Insurance (INI), the 80 member companies serve customers in over 90 countries spanning all continents.
